A UNIQUE BOOK SHOP SPECIALISING IN KIWI AUTHORS

Dear publisher/author,

Writers Plot Readers Read is a unique independent bookshop for Indie publishers, authors, and discerning readers.

Most of our publishers/authors are aware that keeping our doors open is a real challenge and we almost lost the battle recently. As part of an ongoing plan to keep our not-for-profit bookshop afloat, it was decided that the contract needed to change and all existing authors will be sent the new contract.

Working together to raise awareness of the amazing talent in this country of ours is the way forward. We're not competing with each other, we are supporting each other. We strive to create a space that is accepting of our diversity and we do understand all the challenges faced by authors.

To enable us to better support you and help make sure we are still here providing our services in the long term, we have redesigned our consignment contract and terms.

Please read the contract carefully there is a new clause:

4. Publisher/Author agrees to purchase four books per year from Writers Plot Readers Read, either in person or online via the website.

To do what we do in providing a physical store for Indie publishers and authors, takes more than books on the shelves, it takes readers and sales. We need you as much as you need us.

We understand if you no longer want to have your books with us but we hope that's not the case.

If you would like to become a member of our growing Incorporated Society please download the appropriate form from our website (and welcome to the family).

Cheers,
Cat and Caro
Directors
